LAKE MOHONK CONFERENCE

INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION ASSEMBLY ATTENDED BY ABOUT 300 DELEGATES.

FOSTER SAYS "NEXT WAR IS NOT LIKELY TO COME IN- TERESTING ADDRESS GIVEN.

LAKE MOHONK, N. Y., May 30.—The twelfth annual Lake Mohonk conference on international arbitration opened today with an attendance of 300 delegates. The opening address was delivered by Albert K. Smiley. Mr. Smiley was followed by ex-Secretary of State John W. Foster.

Mr. Foster, as president of the conference, delivered an address, in which he said in part:

"We congratulate ourselves on the assembling of the twelfth annual conference on international arbitration today, with the reign of peace among all the nations of the earth. The hopeful promise now is not only that peace reigns, but that the nations are striving to preserve peace.

"It is a mockery of sincerity and consistency to solemnly enter into treaty compacts for the settlement of international disputes by peaceful arbitration, while the high contracting parties continue to strain to their utmost their taxing capacity and their credit in preparations for war.

"I recognize that the limitation of armaments is encompassed with many difficulties, but it is no more impossible of realization than a general arbitration treaty seemed a few years ago.

"I earnestly hope our government's delegates to The Hague will take the lead in bringing about an agreement among the great powers for a limitation and, if possible, a reduction in armaments. But I do not lose sight of the fact that even in our own country, the proposition does not meet with universal favor; that there is abroad in the land a chauvinistic spirit of militarism and a disposition to belittle the efforts of the friends of peace. The war and navy departments are constantly appealing to congress for increased appropriations to put them in proper condition for war. The lately retired commanding general of the army has announced in a public address that we must prepare ourselves for the next war.

"Why this constant harping on the 'next war' when there is no human probability of having one? If we attend to our own business and allow other nations to attend to theirs there will be no occasion for armed conflicts on our part.

"I would not have you understand that I am advocating peace at any price. I believe with President Roosevelt as expressed in his message already quoted, that there have been, and may be in the future, righteous wars, and I would, as he expressed it, 'follow the path which leads towards righteousness even though that path leads to war.'

"But I also believe that in the present stage of the world's progress, most wars may be avoided, and if the powerful nations will unite in compulsory arbitration, all aggressive wars may be prevented. I also believe that the measure next to, if not equal in importance, with compulsory arbitration, to secure the world's peace, is the limitation and diminution of the armaments of the great powers."

The principal address at the second session this evening was by Representative Bartholdt, of Missouri, who spoke on "The Introduction of the Peace Move in Practical Politics."

Charles M. Pepper, of Washington opened a discussion of the purpose and scope of the Pan-American conference.

Francis B. Loomis, former assistant secretary of state said the real significance of the Pan-American conference lay in removing the causes of distrust.

"Too much stress cannot be laid on the importance of these conferences to this country," he said. "The greatest good can be accomplished by holding the conferences in this country and taking the delegates to our principal cities.

He advocated American schools in every city in Latin America and said: "Trade follows the language no less surely than it follows the flag."

N. Y. INSURANCE MAN MEETS DEATH IN AUTO ACCIDENT.

NEW YORK, May 30.—Reuben J. Taylor, superintendent of the Continental Fire Insurance company, was killed today when his automobile fell over a 25-foot embankment.

AUTO HIT STREET CAR; MANY HURT

COLLISION CAUSED EXPLOSION OF GASOLINE TANK, SCATTERING BURNING FLUID OVER PASSENGERS.

CINCINNATI, May 30.—Seventeen persons were injured, one fatally, in a collision between an automobile owned by Dr. J. C. Arkins and two street cars on Vine street hill here today. The chauffeur tried to pass between a Mill Creek valley car, southbound, and a Vine and Norwood car, northbound. Immediately after the collision the storage tank of the automobile exploded, throwing the burning oil over both cars, as well as the automobile.

Dr. J. C. Arkins, Bertha and Eugenia Nelson, sisters, and Chauffeur Walter Duvall, who were in the auto, were seriously injured. Dr. Arkins was burned about the face and head and probably will die. Thirteen of the passengers on the Mill Creek valley car were slightly burned. Both cars and the automobile were completely destroyed.

STREW FLOWERS ON SEA

Impressive Memorial Day Services Held in San Francisco

A civic and military procession proceeded through the Presidio grounds to the National cemetery, on a hill overlooking the Pacific, where appropriate exercises were held in memory of those who perished at sea. Flowers were strewn on the ocean from the United States ship Sheridan.

Later there was a special concert in the park, attended by thousands from the various local cities and suburban portions of the city.

GUTHRIE, Okla., May 30.—In a pistol duel on the main street of Enid tonight Robert White, a bystander, was killed and Robert Johnson escaped from the officers and has not been captured. The town is greatly excited over the affair.

PLANS TO FORM A NEW CABINET

EMPEROR CHARGES BARON TO ORGANIZE BODY TO SUCCEED MINISTRY WHICH RESIGNED MAY 28.

VIENNA, May 30.—Baron Von Beck, a high official of the ministry of agriculture, has been charged by the emperor to form a new cabinet to succeed the Hohenlohe-Schillingfuerst ministry which resigned May 28, owing to the dissatisfaction with the proposals for the settlement of the common custom tariff of Austria-Hungary.

Baron Von Beck is known to be in the confidence of Archduke Franz Ferdinand, the heir presumptive to the throne.

While the parliamentary revolt against the decision of the crown favoring economic independence is going on, the people remain quiet and are not interested in the quarrel, mainly because they recognize that the complete separation of the two countries is sooner or later inevitable. The anger of the Austrian deputies because they were ignored and not asked by the emperor for their consent to his action in settling the tariff dispute with Hungary by his majesty giving his consent to the common tariff being henceforth called the "autonomous Hungarian tariff," found expression today in violent speeches in parliament made by representatives of the various parties. Herr Klofac, a Czech radical, said:

"We have no confidence in the wearer of the crown who has always been a weak man on the throne with German leanings."

The Viennese burgomaster, Herr Lueger, apostrophized the emperor as follows:

"Kaiser, are you ready to take up the responsibilities before history that the old Hapsburg realm, rich in honor and victories, shall be ruined despicably?"

An unconfirmed report is current that the crown has granted other concessions to Hungary, indicating the approaching full economic independence, and it is said that his majesty has sanctioned the cabinet to negotiate with Servia in Hungary's name concerning a commercial treaty without regard to the Austrian negotiations on the same subject.

IRELAND'S NOTED POLITICIAN DEAD

MICHAEL DAVITT PASSES AWAY IN DUBLIN LAST NIGHT AFTER A LONG ILLNESS.

DUBLIN, May 30.—A notable career closed tonight when after a long and painful illness Michael Davitt died peacefully at 12 o'clock in the presence of his oldest son and his two daughters. Shortly before his death Father Hatton had been with him. Mrs. Davitt, who had been in attendance on her husband until a few days before when she herself was taken ill, lies prostrate in the same hospital, too weak to leave her room.

Mr. Davitt retired from the representation of South Mayo in parliament in 1899, but to the last took a keen interest in the politics of his country. Death was due to blood poisoning which followed two operations for necrosis of the jawbone and spread so rapidly that all efforts to stay its course were unavailing. Mr. Davitt's illness began with an attack of toothache to which he paid no attention until John Dillon urged him to have recourse to medical aid.

PITCHER DROWNS ARM.

SIOUX CITY, May 30.—Bert Jones, one of the best pitchers for the Lincoln Western League baseball team fell and broke his left arm this evening while playfully scuffling with some of the team mates at their hotel.

CLUB WOMEN IN ST. PAUL

MRS. DECKER PRESIDES AT THE COUNCIL OF THE GENERAL FEDERATION.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO SECURE RELIEF FUNDS FOR SAN FRANCISCO CLUBS. ANIMATED DISCUSSIONS.

ST. PAUL, May 30.—Women from all parts of the United States are gathered in St. Paul today attending the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's clubs, which will last a week. The meeting will be held in the rotunda of the old capitol building.

All today was spent principally in preparing for the business sessions, which began tomorrow. A meeting of the council was held this afternoon with Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker in the chair and from the discussion, which followed the introduction of several amendments of the constitution it is evident that some very animated discussions will take place in the convention hall.

There was an amiable agreement to appoint a committee to collect funds to help out the federated clubs in San Francisco which were disabled by the earthquake. The New York Sorosis club promptly handed in a check for $250.

When the question of an amendment to increase the number of vice presidents of the general federation from two to five was reached, objections came up at once. The proposition also carried with it the plan of electing them from five sections of the country. Mrs. Decker seemed to favor the idea, and said:

"The federation is like a child which has outgrown its original clothes, and they must be made over to fit the larger growth."

It was finally decided not to recommend the increase to the convention.

Tonight the opening meeting of the convention was held in the armory. Governor Johnson, Mayor Smith and others welcomed the delegates; and Mrs. Decker responded for the general federation.

NEW YORK, May 30. The statement having been made that the government of Salvador was encouraging the revolutionists in Guatemala, in response to a telegram, President Escalon of Salvador sent today the following message:

"We have had nothing to do with the revolution in Guatemala."

(Signed) PRESIDENT ESCALON."

PRESIDENT OF ARKANSAS SENATE, WITH THIRTY MEMBERS OF LEGISLATURE UNDER INDICTMENT.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 30.—A bench warrant was served today on Webb Covington, president of the last state senate at his home at Clarksville. He is already under indictment in two cases for alleged "boodling" in the last legislature. The warrant today was issued on a new indictment returned yesterday in connection with alleged extensive boodling charges against legislators.

It is said three new indictments have been returned and that other arrests will follow. In all 30 members of the house and senate are charged with complicity.

MURDERED GIRL IS FOUND BURIED

BLOODHOUNDS UNEARTH AWFUL CRIME IN WASHINGTON. CRIME PROBABLY WAS COMMITTED BY TRAMPS.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 30.—Elsie Mullhoff, the 17-year-old daughter of William Mullhoff of Benton, was assaulted and murdered and her body partially buried on what is known as the "old Renton farm" last night. Her body, with the throat cut, was found by searching parties today.

The girl was sent after the cows at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. She did not return and when she could not be found a general alarm was sounded and the entire town turned out to join in the search. It was nearly noon when a party of searchers came upon the girl's body partially buried in a secluded spot, 1,000 feet from the primitive gospel church.

The body was located by bloodhounds brought from Black Diamond and put on the trail along the Cedar river, where the girl was last seen alive.

Tramps are believed to have committed the crime and today all suspicious characters loitering about Renton in the neighborhood of the town are under surveillance.

MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVED IN CAPITAL OF MEXICO.

MEXICO CITY, May 30.—Memorial day was observed here by the local post, Grand Army of the Republic, which decorated the graves of American soldiers in the United States National cemetery, where rest the remains of many soldiers who lost their lives during the war of the North American invasion.

FIND NEW GOLD FIELD

Remarkable Strikes Reported Near Alkali Springs, Nevada.

GOLDFIELD, Nev., May 30.—Remarkable strikes have been reported from near Alkali Springs, 12 miles north east of Goldfield, and today Goldfield is nearly depopulated of its working men and prospectors. For two days the stream of gold seekers has been pouring into the district from Goldfield along Cuddy canyon.

The ore taken out now resembles that of Tonopah, showing gold and silver in about equal quantities.

TRIBUTES TO NATION'S DEAD

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT GAVE MEMORIAL DAY ADDRESS AT PORTSMOUTH.

OFFICIATED AT UNVEILING OF MONUMENT ERECTED BY ARMY AND NAVY UNION TO COMRADES.

OLD POINT COMFORT, Va., May 30.—President Roosevelt joined today with members of both the blue and the gray in paying appropriate and impressive tribute to the nation's dead. In the morning the president delivered a patriotic oration in the industrial grounds of the naval hospital at Portsmouth and directly afterward unveiled a handsome marble shaft erected by the Army and Navy union in the cemetery adjoining the hospital grounds to the memory of its fallen comrades.

Both Blue and Gray.

The ceremonies at Portsmouth were under auspices of the Army and Navy union. The memorial exercises were preceded by an imposing parade through the principal streets of Portsmouth. Nearly 4,000 sailors and marines of the North Atlantic fleet participated in the parade. In addition there were organizations representing the Army and Navy union, the Grand Army of the Republic, the United Confederate Veterans and many civic and patriotic societies. Portsmouth was elaborately decorated. Business houses and residences were a blaze of bunting. Thousands of people, not only from Virginia but from adjoining states, as well, thronged the quaint old town and extended to the president most cordial greeting. His audience numbered many thousands, and the naval contingent in white uniforms formed under the giant pine trees in a hollow square, rendering the scene particularly picturesque.

Visited Hampton Institute.

In the afternoon President and Mrs. Roosevelt, after an informal luncheon and reception of the officers of the Norfolk navy yard, at the residence of Rear Admiral Harrington, commandant of the yard, visited Hampton institute. The president delivered an address to the hundreds of negro and Indian students of the institute, afterward making a tour of the various departments of the school. President Roosevelt went aboard the Mayflower, anchored just off this point, at 6.35 o'clock this evening. The vessel weighed anchor and sailed at 7 o'clock for Washington. The president and his party are expected to arrive in Washington tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

In his address this morning President Roosevelt said:

Roosevelt's Address.

This day is hallowed and sacred in our history, for on this day throughout the land we meet to pay homage to the memory of the valiant dead who fell in the great civil war. No other men deserve so well of this country as those to whom we owe it that we now have a country. Moreover, the men to whose valor we owe it that the union was preserved have left us a country reunited in fact as well as in name. They have left us the memory of the great deeds and the self-devotion alike of the men who wore the blue and of the man who wore the gray, in the contest where brother fought brother with equal courage, with equal sincerity of conviction, with equal fidelity to a high ideal, as it was given to each to see that ideal.

Moreover, it is a peculiar pleasure to speak today under the auspices of the Army and Navy Union, of the union which is meant to include the officers and enlisted men of the regular forces of the United States. Exactly as there is no other body of men to whom in the past we have owed so much as to the veterans of the Civil war, so there is no other body of men among all of our citizens of today who as a whole deserve quite as well of the country as the officers and enlisted men of the army and the navy of the United States. Every man who has served well and faithfully, afloat or ashore, in the service of the

TWENTY DROWNED

BRITISH SHIP LIMORE WRECKED AND ONLY FOUR OF CREW ESCAPED.

CONCEPCION, Chile, May 30. The British ship Limore, Captain Cowell, from Melbourne April 21 for Coronel, has been wrecked at Santa Maria. Twenty-two of the crew were drowned, including all the officers except the first mate, who, with three members of the crew, landed at Lico.

SPAIN GETS A QUEEN TODAY

PRINCESS ENA RENOUNCES RIGHT OF SUCCESSION TO ENGLISH CROWN.

RECEIVES PUBLIC GRANT OF $90,000 WILL GET $50,000 ANNUALLY IN EVENT OF WIDOWHOOD.

MADRID, May 30.—All Spain is rejoicing over the news of the wedding of King Alfonso and Princess Victoria as Princess Ena is now known in Spain, and the capital has not seen such scenes of enthusiasm during the present generation. Throughout the whole city streamers with the colors and inscriptions commemorative of the event are displayed and dense masses of people are at the central points and literally packed.

As the delegations and foundations take on their most high class is a motley throng with bonnets, almost barbaric, sweaters, Moors wrapped in flowing robes and with red turbans of their heads. Veritable dancers performing their native jota, Salamanca herders in red velvet and studded gold with many representatives of Spanish clergy and hordes of blind beggars singing the melancholy music of Spain. At the corners bands play for street dancers. The municipality has given free seats to the popular rejoicings. The schools and public institutions have been closed and the whole population has given itself up to celebrating the king's marriage.

The chief events of today were the king's reception to the foreign envoys, including the representatives of the United States, and the signing of the wedding contract. The latter ceremony took place at the Pardo palace in the presence of Premier Maura and the other cabinet ministers, with the solemnity befitting a great state ceremony affecting the future succession to the throne.

The marriage contract appears tonight in the official Gazette. Article 2 gives the bride an annual income of $90,000, and in the event of the king's death $50,000. In article 3 Princess Victoria renounces all right of succession to the British throne.

Preceding the signature of the contract the Spanish journalists presented to King Alfonso a golden pen with which to sign the document. The king laughingly accepted the gift, declaring that he had always defended the Spanish press against criticisms.

Many receptions were held tonight, among them those at the British embassy to the Prince of Wales; at the Italian embassy, to the Duke of Genoa; at the German embassy, to Prince Albrecht, of Prussia, and at the American legation, to Special Envoy Whitelaw Reid.

SUGAR STRIKERS CAUSE TROUBLE

A. F. L. TO ASK ROOSEVELT TO KEEP THE PORTO RICO POLICE FROM INTIMIDATION PRACTICES.

SAN JUAN, P. R., May 30.—Strikers are seriously interfering with the work in the sugar plantations in the Arecibo district. The police are handling the situation with much difficulty.

The American Federation of Labor asserts that the police are being used to intimidate the strikers. President Gompers of the Federation is sending financial aid to the strikers.

As a policeman was taking a prisoner to the Arecibo jail today he passed a labor meeting, a speaker at which urged the crowd to release the striker. An attack was made and in the conflict the policeman was wounded and a striker was killed.

The American Federation of Labor will send a protest to President Roosevelt through President Gompers.

There have been several cane field fires.

DILATORINESS IS CAUSE OF DELAY

REFUSAL OF FRISCO UNDERWRITERS TO ADVANCE MONEY FOR NEW FRISCO ERECTION WORK TO STOP.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 30.—Building operations in the ruined portions of this city have received a decided setback owing to the dilatory tactics of the underwriters. Almost before the ruins had cooled, the owners of large buildings in the business section which had not been destroyed beyond restoration planned for their speedy and complete rehabilitation. In a few days after the great fire throngs of men were engaged in strengthening the the shells and carrying away the debris of the great office buildings and hotels in the downtown district.

Today the men engaged on the Crocker, Shreve, Mutual Savings Bank building and the St. Francis hotel in these operations were given notice that all work must cease because of the lack of funds. Accordingly the army of laborers and skilled mechanics were laid off.

Owners and builders claim that they have used every effort to persuade the underwriters to advance insurance moneys, but without avail, and the statement is now made that owners are as much in the dark as to the date of adjustment and payment as they were the day after the fire.

BIG FLOOD IN OREGON

High Water Drives Pendleton People From Their Homes

PENDLETON, Ore., May 30.—One-third of the people of Pendleton are either temporarily homeless or have been driven into the upper floors of the residences by the rising waters of the Umatilla river, which is now a torrent. The big wagon bridge a mile above Pendleton has been washed out and the wreckage piled against the Oregon Railroad and Navigation company's bridge, threatening either to overthrow it or cut a path through the levee and flood the town.

All trains are tied up and will be for some days. The railroad bridges both there and below Pendleton are out. The flood is sweeping through lower Main and Court streets and all the business houses are flooded in that district. The rain is falling steadily and the people in the main part of Pendleton have moved their goods to the hills on either side.

WATER THREE FEET DEEP IN WALLA WALLA STREETS

WALLA WALLA, Wash., May 30.—Heavy damage is threatened by a flood which is sweeping through this city and over the surrounding country. The Walla Walla Power company's dam on Walla Walla river, 12 miles above the city, went out this morning cutting off all electric lights and power. Alder street, a business thoroughfare, is flooded to a depth of three feet. Two bridges in the city have been carried away. Several houses have floated down with the flood and it is feared the damage in the country will be great.

LOCK CANAL IS TYPE TO BUILD

SHONTS TELLS OF TIME TO BE SAVED IN CONSTRUCTION, AND BENEFITS TO ACCRUE.

ATLANTA, Ga., May 30.—Theo. P. Shonts, chairman of the Panama Canal commission was the guest today of Atlanta friends. He delivered two addresses. The first was at the dedication of a new building at Agnes Scott institute, a college for women, in Decatur, a suburb of Atlanta. The second was delivered this evening before the Chamber of Commerce, in which he spoke of the relation of the south to the Panama canal. He took strong grounds in advocacy of the lock canal system.

Mr. Shonts said that between the time of the selling of the supplies which will enter into the construction of the Panama canal, and the period when the opening of the canal will result in the development of the country, a gulf is fixed. How great and how wide that gulf is will depend on the type of canal selected. Mr. Shonts spoke in favor of a lock canal as recommended by the minority of the consulting board and indorsed by the canal commission. He said in conclusion:

"The practical questions for all sections of the country is how long shall we wait before we can enter upon the period of development which the opening of the canal will bring to the country? I am not surprised that European countries are indifferent to the early completion of this canal. I am not surprised that they are indifferent as to how much this canal may cost our government. I am not surprised that they can view calmly an indefinite postponement of the opening of this great waterway.

"They are neither paying the bills nor will their commerce and industries suffer by waiting for the completion of this undertaking. But I am surprised that those who are supposed to represent the best interests of the American people should try to throw obstacles in the way of realizing the benefits of this work at the earliest possible date. When we can get a better canal for less money and receive the benefits ourselves, why wait, why make it a heritage to our children with the possibility of their being deprived of its benefits through some unforseen contingency? I have spoken of a gulf. Now, how wide that gulf shall be depends on the people. Do you want to reap the benefit of this undertaking yourselves, or do you want to transmit a hope to your children or your children's children?"

Later in the evening Mr. Shonts was entertained at a dinner tendered by fifty citizens.

STILL TRYING TO IGNORE DEMANDS

REFORMS FROM REACTIONS IN CAUCASUS SHOW CONSTITUTIONAL DEMOCRATS UNIFORMLY VICTORIOUS.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 30.—Despite the interpellation adopted by the lower house or parliament yesterday regarding the provocative black hundred telegrams to the emperor, printed in the Official Messenger, that paper this morning published several columns against extending the amnesty to "traitors," but asking for the pardon of those who participated in the anti-Jewish outrages and generally protesting that the lower house of parliament does not represent the real voice of the Russian people. This taken in connection with the execution of the seven Revolutionists at Riga, while the interpellation on the subject was pending is interpreted as being a studied effort on the part of the government to ignore the demands of parliament. But probably it is nearer the truth to say that it only expressed the continuance of the conflict of authority within the [illegible]

NO ATTENTION PAID TO LAW

NEW AGRICULTURAL BUILDING MAY CONSIST OF ONLY TWO WINGS.

SOMEBODY PLANS TO EXPEND ENTIRE APPROPRIATION OF $1,500,000 FOR INADEQUATE PART OF BUILDING.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—What members of the house committee on appropriations regard as an absolute disregard of the law authorizing the construction of the new building for the department of agriculture is revealed in the hearings before that committee on the sundry appropriations bill. In 1903 congress appropriated $1,500,000 for this building. It was the general understanding that this appropriation was for the erection of a complete building for the accommodation of the entire department. It was with some astonishment that the members learned last week that somebody has ordered the construction of two wings of what may some day be the completed building and that the two wings have practically exhausted the million and a half dollars appropriated for a complete structure.

The wings, when completed, will, according to testimony given before the committee, be inadequate to house the department force and congress will be called upon to appropriate another couple of millions to fill the space between the two wings.

Considerable irritation was developed during the hearings before the appropriations committee and Secretary Wilson, Dr. Galloway and officials of the agriculture department were questioned concerning what is said to be a direct violation of law.

When G. S. Gardner, mechanical engineer of the department of agriculture, testified before the appropriations committee he was asked if he knew the limit of the entire building and replied that he did—that it was $1,500,000.

Mr. Gardner continuing said in reply to further questions by Mr. Tawney, that the central administration building was not included in the limit of cost, that it was not even contemplated as yet and that it would have to be appropriated for at some future time.

It developed further from Mr. Gardner's testimony that the administrative work of the department would be carried on in the present building although congress provided that it should be torn down. Further than that Mr. Gardner said that the two wings in question were being constructed "for laboratory purposes."

"Do you know," asked Mr. Tawney, "who is responsible for the plans of the building that is now being erected, that was authorized, accepted and approved?"

"The secretary of agriculture," replied Mr. Gardner.

"On whose recommendation was the change made?"

"There was a meeting at the White house and it was decided by the secretary and the president that the building should be moved," replied Mr. Gardner.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson was questioned at some length before the committee and made a long prepared statement in defense of the present construction.

"How can you justify your position?" asked Chairman Tawney. "When you made your plans, if you became satisfied that $1,500,000 was not enough, I should have thought you would have informed congress before going on with the plan you adopted."

"You have a wrong idea in your mind there," said Mr. Wilson. "We made a plan to exhaust $1,500,000. We built in such a way that congress might add to it, and we made no plans but for our buildings."

The secretary went on to detail the great growth of the department and to defend his course in erecting wings that might be added to, instead of erecting one building as specified by congress.

Members of the committee assured Mr. Wilson that they did not suspect his integrity or take issue with his wisdom at this time, but they did not think he had authority in law for what he had done. To a suggestion of this kind, the secretary tartly replied:

"You make a law without consulting a soul in the agricultural department with regard to its necessities. The man who drafted the law came pretty near the needs and I made the most of it."

DAY IN THE HILLS

City Deserted Yesterday for Pleasure Retreats in the Mountains

No clearer skies have smiled on Colorado Springs than those of yesterday, Memorial day. The morning dawned without a cloud in the sea of blue and all activity being suspended former preparations for a day's outing in the hills were put into effect.

It was a busy day for the street railway company and the steam lines connecting with the several resorts near the city. Every street car was brought into service and all were crowded the entire day.

Manitou, Stratton park and the Zoo were perhaps the most popular with the people. In the quiet shady nooks everywhere parties with well-filled baskets were to be seen. It was a holiday and with the majority a day of rest, and they were enjoying it to the full.

To its credit, however, be it said Colorado Springs did not forget the real purpose of the day, and thousands of people visited the cemetery, to pay tribute to the nation's departed heroes of the Civil war and also to decorate the graves of other loved ones.

Residences and places of business throughout the city were decorated with flags and bunting of red, white and blue. Several of the flags in the down-town section were placed at half mast.

The spirit of patriotism was abroad, everywhere—patriotism and gratitude for the defenders of the nation in whose memory the day was set apart.

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES.

Kidney Diseases Cause Half the Common Aches and Ills of Colorado Springs People.

As one weak link weakens a chain so weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking-down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys and when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers from the excess of uric poison circulated in the blood.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills come and there is an ever-increasing tendency towards diabetes and fatal Bright's disease. There is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys and cure every kidney ill. Colorado Springs cures are the proof.

Colorado Springs, Colo.

This is to certify that I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills and found them to be all that is claimed for them by the manufacturers. They certainly had marvelous beneficial results in my case, and everybody suffering with kidney trouble should give them a trial.

Yours truly,

ERNEST HAYES HURT

Sustains Serious Injuries by Fall in North Cheyenne Canon

Ernest Hayes, aged 22 years, who lives at 104 North Chestnut street, was badly injured by a fall in North Cheyenne canon yesterday afternoon where he was sightseeing with a party of young men and women. The young man slipped and fell a distance of fifty feet, sustaining a sprained back and other bruises which rendered him almost helpless and made it necessary for his companions to secure a carriage in which to convey him to the street car line at Stratton park, where he was conveyed to his home. It was impossible last night for the attending physician to determine whether the young man had sustained a fractured rib. His injuries are not considered dangerous.

Biliousness and Constipation

"For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I did not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The effects were simply marvelous. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, purify the stomach, liver and blood, helping the system to do its work naturally. They bring back new life and energy, a bright eye, a clear brow and a happy heart.—Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala. These tablets are for sale by all druggists.

UNIQUE ARMY HAT

W. C. Whitthorn of 127 Wahsatch avenue has in his possession a regulation army hat of the year 1898 which is unique and which is regarded by its owner as a valuable memento of the Spanish-American war.

The hat in question was used to record the names of company A, second Arkansas infantry, U. S. V., and contains a full roster. It also shows the discharged men, desertions, deaths, transfers, promotions, resignations, assignments to various army corps, etc. This data is written on the felt with a pen and completely covers the outside surface.

Mr. Whitthorn was first sergeant of the company whose names appear on the hat.

AUTO EXPLODES.

An incident of yesterday's parade not scheduled was caused by the explosion of an automobile belonging to R. A. Riddle within a short distance of the fire department's representation, seeing the machine enveloped in flames, Fire Chief Armburster called the assistance of the chemical apparatus truck and withdrawing from the parading columns extinguished the blaze before much damage was done the machine.

Jumping from the car the occupants, R. A. Riddle and W. M. Owen, escaped without injury.

The local Welsh society will furnish music for the service.

ARINGTON'S COMEDIANS IN "THE PRINCESS OF PATCHES"

At the Opera house last evening Arington's Comedians presented a play that was entirely new to local theatergoers, "The Princess of Patches," a stirring comedy drama of the South in four acts, the large holiday audiences were thoroughly appreciative. The play is a good, sound one and is full of excitement. It was elaborately staged and great credit is due to the company's stage director (Mr. Craig) for the manner in which these plays are produced. Mayme Arington as Selma Silverthorn, the princess, again demonstrated her ability in a trying role, her scene in the third act being exceptionally fine. Elsa Morgan as Juliet, Florence Craig as Phoebe, Thomas Pawley as Jack Merry, U. S. Allen as "Lee Silverthorn," A. C. Cole as "Dr. Judas," W. W. Craig as "Waggles," a tramp, Lew Verdin as Col. Silverthorn," and A. Walton as Neb" gave universal satisfaction in their respective roles. The specialties of Baby Helen and Miss Dunlap being heartily encored. "The Princess of Patches" will be presented again at the matinee this afternoon also this evening. This is a play the ladies and children can enjoy.

The Gazette Bureau of Information is free to all. "Ask The Gazette."

PORTLAND TO FILE SUIT AGAINST INDEPENDENCE COMPANY IN FEW DAYS

It is understood that the suit which the Portland Gold Mining company is said to be preparing to bring against the Stratton Independence company, limited, for $400,000 will be filed in a few days, the papers now being in course of preparation by Denver attorneys.

It is alleged that about $400,000 worth of ore has been extracted from Portland property by Independence lessees within a little more than a year. Irving Howbert, president of the Portland company, is said to have brought the matter to the attention of the Stratton people a number of times during the last two months and failing to get any sort of satisfaction has told the company's attorney to go ahead with the suit. The suit promises to be one of the most interesting mining cases in Colorado courts for years.

MEMORIAL EXERCISES

War Veterans Decorate Graves of Departed Comrades.

To do honor to the veterans of the Civil war, public offices, business houses and shops of Colorado City were closed yesterday. The town was gay with fluttering flags. Long before the hour for the parade to start, Court street was thronged with the aged veterans, their families and friends. At 2:45 o'clock the column was formed at the corner of Court street and Colorado avenue, with Captain J. L. Richards marshal of the day in charge. The line of march led west on Colorado avenue with Chief of Police Birdsall and a squad of patrolmen in the lead. Captain Richards officer in charge mounted followed. Then came in order members of the Women's Relief corps of Colorado City and pupils of the Colorado City public schools, the members of the drum and bugle corps, veterans of the Civil and Spanish-American wars. At the corner of Sixth street and Colorado avenue the parade turned south on Sixth street to Fairview cemetery where the memorial exercises were held. Judge Robert Kerr and the Rev. Adna Moore both of Colorado Springs, delivered addresses, after which veterans covered the graves of their dead comrades with floral wreaths.

THE ROYAL WEDDING.

TODAY will be the big day of all big days in Madrid the day to which every loyal Spaniard has looked forward for months. Not since the memorious times of War with the United States has there been such excitement in the Spanish capital but it is excitement of a very different kind from that of 1898. For Madrid and all Spain for that matter are excited over that most interesting of events a wedding. Today King Alfonso XIII who though barely twenty years old has been a reigning sovereign for more than two years is to take unto himself a wife.

The Spanish people may well rejoice at this propitious event for it marks the second important step in the life of their ruler the first being his assumption of kingly authority and it tends too to strengthen his hold on the crown. But great as the joy of the people may be it can not compare with that of his mother Queen Maria Christina who sees her dearest hopes fulfilled. Whatever good qualities the boy may possess and he is said to have plenty of them are due to the unflagging care and watchfulness of this devoted woman. Until the last two or three years it seemed that Alfonso was born under an unlucky star. He is the posthumous son of the late King Alfonso XII and was born six months after the death of his father a profligate whose career was of little use to himself or his country. Thus Alfonso XIII was a king from the very day he came into the world but there was scarcely a hope that he would ever live to sit on the throne for he was a sickly child with almost no vitality. Moreover Spain was beset with grave political troubles and for many years there was danger that the Carlists would succeed in wresting the crown from the elder line represented by Alfonso.

The Queen Mother Maria Christina was an Austrian princess and has never been popular with the people of her adopted country. But she has had one firm purpose and ambition—to see her son safely seated on the throne of his ancestors and kept there. The boy was educated with the utmost care with particular attention to his physical well being. Maria Christina followed the sensible course she kept him in the open air and encouraged him to indulge in out door sports and games in the hope of eradicating the hereditary taint of tuberculosis. As a result Alfonso has grown up into a well-developed man fond of athletics a good horseman, and said to be strong and vigorous. He is credited with being quite democratic in his tastes and with possessing a hearty contempt for the shams and flummery of court life.

His bride, the Princess Victoria Eugenie Julia Ena, is the daughter of the Princess Beatrice, youngest daughter of the late Queen Victoria, and is therefore the niece of King Edward. Her father was Prince Henry of Battenberg, who died in 1896. Princess Ena is a year younger than her future husband, and if her photographs tell the truth is a fairly good looking princess as princesses go. Her marriage with King Alfonso unites the royal families of Great Britain and Spain and places a descendant of Victoria on almost the only throne in Europe not hitherto connected by blood or marriage with that of England.

For more than two centuries Spain has been ranked as the most decadent of the Latin nations but since the war with the United States she has made surprising progress. That conflict relieved her of the last vestige of her colonial empire, once the most magnificent in the world, but in later years only a heavy burden. With Cuba Porto Rico and the Philippines off its hands the Spanish government has been able to devote its energies to internal affairs. There has been no effort to regain a place among the world powers but the national finances have been bettered and the condition of the people improved which after all are matters of greater moment than mere national aggrandizement. The outlook for the country is brighter now than at any time in the last century and King Alfonso has a chance to become one of the most useful monarchs in Europe. That he will fulfill his early promise is confidently expected and certainly his reign could not have been marked thus far by more auspicious events.

PROTECTING THE WILD FLOWERS.

THIS is the season when the wild flowers of Colorado begin to attain their greatest beauty. Wherever one goes he finds them brightening the landscape with an endless variety of color on the plains, in the valleys and on the mountain slopes. In the more inaccessible places near Colorado Springs they are still abundant but in the canons Palmer Park and other places frequented every day by visitors the wild flowers are becoming scarcer every year. Many of the varieties that used to be so common can now be found only after long and patient search and others have been practically exterminated.

This condition is due solely to the carelessness of people who gather wild flowers. One of the most familiar sights in summer is the man woman or child usually a visitor returning to town laden with a great bunch of wild flowers some of them pulled up with handfuls enough to fill a half dozen vases with scarcely a spare moment in any person's [illegible] A great many people pull the flowers up with the intention of replanting them ignorant of the fact that wild flowers can not be successfully cultivated in pots or cultivated at all for that matter. Some people who find themselves on a mountain slope or upland meadow where flowers are plentiful are seized with a desire to get everything in sight they continue to pick flowers until they have all they can carry and when they get home they throw them away.

This is why the wild flowers are [illegible] scarcer each year and why the people who really love them and want them preserved for others have been compelled to take measures for their protection. Last year the Woman's Club started a movement to secure better protection for the flowers and a startling circular was opened to do just the work [illegible] has already been done. The Midland and Short Line railroads which in the past have unintentionally contributed largely to the destruction of the flowers by running wild flower excursions have agreed to place signs in their cars cautioning the public against the careless picking of blossoms and destruction of plants. Similar signs have been placed along the railroad tracks in Stratton Park.

It is probable that in most cases a word will be necessary only to call the attention of visitors to the matter for very few people deliberately destroy the flowers in a spirit of wantonness. Most of them do it merely from a desire to get as much of a good thing as possible. But whatever the motive the practice is reducing a beautiful asset of Colorado and should be stopped.

FOR CLEANER CURRENCY.

IN a recent report to Secretary Shaw of the United States Treasury he has recommended the passage of a law providing for the issuance of bills of a character which would be less susceptible to injury by contact with the filth and germs which they collect in their circulation. Under the present system the Treasury contributes and produces filth and disease.

If the Treasury officials can introduce some sanitary method they will deserve a vote of thanks from the people. We have all heard a good deal about the germ theory in the last year but little has been said about the worst germ infested kind of a germ the filthy paper currency that passes from hand to hand and everybody handles in every transaction until each piece becomes simply a three by seven inch nest of dirt and disease germs. The five dollar bill is the worst offender because it is the one in most general use. How often does anybody see a really clean five dollar bill? Only on rare occasions we dare say. Nine tenths of the currency now in circulation is really unfit for use both for sanitary and esthetic reasons. But it passes along and everybody is glad to get it simply because it is money. But suppose it were not money. Can any reader imagine himself carrying in his pocket a worthless rag as filthy as some of the currency which he so carefully folds and puts into his pocketbook? Most of us probably never think of the matter in that light. Any kind of money is welcome when it comes to us soiled or unsoiled.

The Bank of England has an excellent rule. It may be a law by which it destroys every bill that comes back to it and issues a new one in its place. It makes no difference if the bill is perfectly clean it is destroyed anyway and this explains why English currency is invariably fresh and [illegible]. The government might well adopt a similar rule. It is said that some of our banks have [illegible] sterilizing and cleansing currency without defacing it or injuring the paper on which it is printed but the easy way would be to have every national bank send its accumulations of soiled bills to the Treasury at Washington or to the nearest subtreasury where they would be destroyed and new bills issued in their place. The cost of doing this would be [illegible] compared with the benefits to be derived from the change [illegible]

In Salina Kas the Civic League in organization of women offered 20 cents a bushel for dandelions. Only a few dollars were appropriated to pay for them but within a week the school children had delivered more than 300 bushels when the offer was withdrawn. It might be a good idea for the Council to try the same method here by offering prizes for blossoms instead of the whole plants. The results would be just as good and the expense considerably less.

General Nogi the victor of Port Arthur is said to believe that General Stoessel will accept his sentence of death with soldierly alacrity. This sounds well but we all know what kind of a [illegible] is generally displayed by a man who is about to be taken out and shot.

Secretary Taft has reduced his weight 56 pounds and still has a more little of 300 pounds to carry about with him. The latter figure is the one he is most likely to think of while experiencing the doubtful joys of a Washington summer.

Rear Admiral Mason says our Navy is going to the dogs. Dogs of war perhaps.

Card in the Maryville (Mo) Forum.

I wish to inform some of the east end people about their howling half-starved curs. I am going to kill every dog that comes on my place. I mean business and the prowling two legged whelp that has been wintering off my cow had better keep shy or I will fertilize the ground with his thieving carcass and send him where they need no coal. I want them to be on the lookout for I certainly mean business.

CONDUCTOR MULLIGAN'S REFERENCE TO A CIRCUIT

From The St Johns (Ore) Review.

She was a pretty little woman from the interior of the state and she boarded Conductor Mulligan's car to come to St Johns to visit her sister-in-law. She had but little knowledge of the trolley system, and viewed everything along the route with intense interest. "If I should put my foot on that rail" said she, pointing to the nearest bit of track "would I get a shock." Mulligan smiled. "Not unless you put your other foot on the over head wire" replied the suave conductor. The dear woman almost fainted.

NOTHING THE MATTER WITH HANNA

From The Danville (Ind) Observer

Friday morning we had the pleasure of writing a receipt for Mr Adam Hanna a well-known and prosperous farmer who resides down along Stringtown pike and who is one of our regular pay-in-advance subscribers. By the way, you will see Adam coming into town some of these days rich enough to go on the retired list—that is if he sticks to the sheep business much longer. He has a fine lot of sheep and two of the ewes have a total of seven live healthy lambs. Perhaps we should state that one ewe is the mother of three and the other of four and that the combination is not two and five nor one and six. Quadruplets or double twins are rarities even among sheep.

Colorado Comment

THOUGHTFUL NEIGHBOR, ANYWAY

From The Yampa Leader.

For one important amendment to the railroad bill cattlemen are indebted to Senator Warren of Wyoming. It allows free transportation of men in charge of stock both ways as has been the custom. The bill as it came from the house forbade any transportation of this kind. Since Colorado had no senator who would do anything for the state we are glad to avail ourselves of the services of our neighbor senator from Cheyenne who can and does get things done for this state as well as for his own.

MANY NEW INHABITANTS

From The Wray Rattler.

It is doubtful if Colorado ever had such an influx of settlers as it is having now. The farming sections of the state are showing marvelous increase in new citizens. This is especially true of the eastern part of the state. Denver is growing rapidly. New buildings are going up all over the city and vacant houses are hard to find. These are excellent signs. Since Colorado demonstrated at the polls that it was for peace and law and order it has looked more attractive to homeseekers than ever before.

FT COLLINS PROGRESSIVENESS

From the Fort Collins (Colo) Democrat.

After raising $[illegible] for a railroad and $60,000 for a Y. M. C. A. building the question of securing a fair for the city is again up for consideration. It is an important subject and one which every citizen should be deeply interested in and do all in his power to help secure. The raising of $10,000 is all that is necessary [illegible] boom for the city. And as here is [illegible] which we can show our wonderful growth [illegible] there should be no hesitancy in helping to secure for Fort Collins the Northern Colorado Fair.

Young Man in Politics

This Is the Age For Him to Make His Mark in the World—Remarkable List of Youthful Leaders Who Have Taken High Places Recently.

From the Washington Post.

A NATION marveled when Missouri's boyish-faced attorney general H S Hadley threw down the gauntlet to the grizzled oil combination and bravely went to New York a few weeks ago to attack them in the citadel of their power.

Missouri's young prosecutor seemed scarcely old enough to have graduated from college yet here he was tackling one of the most powerful corporations in the world assuming a task from which older and experienced men had shrunk because of its apparent hopelessness.

Yet when he reflects there was cause for wonderment. Other young men are accomplishing marvels hardly less notable. In fact it is a young man's time. It is now the fearless loyalty executive ability [illegible] thinking. History [illegible] every side [illegible] the [illegible] and skill of leaders.

[illegible] which is really very venerable as the youthful giants of today [illegible] for it is [illegible] side of politics.

When President Roosevelt and Governor Higgins wanted to break the power of Boss Odell and defeat his candidate for the speakership of the New York assembly they picked out James A Wadsworth Jr a youngster of twenty six and they succeeded with him. When Mayor Dunne Chicago's reform executive sought for a commissioner of public works an official who would be absolutely beyond the reach of the corrupt Chicago gang he picked out Joseph Madill Patterson, another lad of twenty six years.

Colby, Landis, Patterson

New Jersey is in the midst of a reform wave that had its start when Everett Colby broke away from the bosses and successfully made the people's fight against them. He is a thirty-two. Only a year his senior is Fred K Landis the brilliant Indiana congressman whose eloquence has been the pride of the present session and finally for governor of New Mexico we have H J Hagerman who is only thirty four years of age.

After this showing the pessimist who says that there is no longer any chance for the young man is evidently blind to observe the events under the Stars and Stripes.

Not the least hopeful feature is the fact that the young men are fine clean fighters who are directing the reform movement. In fact many of them have gained their prestige [illegible] the best type of American manhood.

Hadley is a Republican. His chief [illegible] Folk belongs to the other party but in more respects than one they have [illegible] they [illegible]

[illegible] years [illegible] the [illegible] Hadley [illegible] the [illegible] these who seek to [illegible] state.

Hadley is the first Republican [illegible] Democratic [illegible] the place since [illegible] His rival presents some interesting [illegible] that of Governor Folk. Both [illegible] of the [illegible] doubtless [illegible] is [illegible] of St Louis. Hadley was [illegible] attorney for Jackson county in which Kansas City is located. While Mr Folk [illegible] Democrat [illegible] uncomfortable for [illegible] Republicans [illegible] the young man was [illegible] much of his time to the prosecution of election thieves.

Hadley and Folk

The [illegible] operated frequently [illegible] often were [illegible] a Jackson county and [illegible] St Louis case or vice versa. Mr Hadley had held the office of assistant counselor of Kansas City at the age of [illegible]

Mr Hadley has worked hard as attorney general. Prior to assuming the office he weighed twenty pounds [illegible] than he does now but the responsibilities of fighting the greatest industrial power on earth have left their marks on his physique. He worked up the case by which Missouri has sought to prove that there is no community of interest in Standard Oil that the Waters-Pierce Oil Republic Oil the International Oil company are all controlled by the Standard Oil company are part of it fact in direct defiance of the law that provides there shall be no monopoly.

After he had made his case Mr Hadley [illegible] with skill and power and in his exchanges with men like H H Rogers he showed a coolness and skill that won warmest praise from the leaders of New York's bar.

Everett Colby is another young man whose efforts have gone for reform. He was an athlete went to Brown played tennis, baseball golf and in his senior year was captain of one of the best football elevens the Providence college ever had.

Among his classmates was John D Rockefeller Jr and Colby being the son of a man of wealth, might have been expected to throw what influence he possessed or might come to possess in the money interests.

Politics attracted him. He went in for it not for reward but because he liked the excitement and wanted something to occupy his time.

Bosses saw a chance to make use of the youngster from Essex county so they aided his ambitions. At the instance of Carl Lentz the boss of Hudson county Colby was appointed by Governor Voorhees to be a commissioner on the state board of education. He did nothing to offend his political masters, so they made him assemblyman from Essex.

Colby and the Bosses

Colby's popularity won him the place of leader of the house and for a time he had the friendship of the bosses. But eventually they pressed him too far in asking the sort of services that might be political but which were impossible in a honest man.

[illegible] as far as he could but when the full import of it came within that the state was still entirely in the interest of the corporations he broke loose from Lentz and in a great fight won the nomination for state senator and then though opposed by the boss was elected by a great majority. To day he is a leading figure in Jersey's fight which bids fair for the people.

Colby went to Brown Patterson to Yale. Both had athletic careers so did Jimmy Wadsworth the 30 year old speaker of the New York assembly. Wadsworth was captain of the Yale varsity nine at 19 two years later he had made his mark as a soldier at Puerto Rico and in another year he was the husband of a daughter of Secretary of State Hay. He is a former [illegible] his ancestors. His selection by President Roosevelt and Governor Higgins for speaker in preference to odds [illegible] because they knew his qualities of leadership and his devotion to clean political ideals. Wadsworth's record in office so far has won him highest praise.

In a garrison at the east of [illegible] shows that H J Hagerman of New Mexico has not permitted any grass to grow under his statesmanship feet.

He was appointed by President Roosevelt but primarily owes his advancement to the interest that Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock took in him.

Herbert Hagerman's Success

Hagerman is a Rodney of the west a native of Wisconsin by birth. He studied abroad as a child and returned to the United States graduated from Yale. He was appointed by President McKinley to be second secretary of the United States embassy in Rome. The high quality of his service won the admiration of Secretary Hitchcock and it was the latter who recommended him to Roosevelt.

The new governor has had his experience in making money. His father was wealthy but lost all he had made in Colorado mining ventures. The family moved into New Mexico and through agricultural pursuits retrieved the lost fortune.

Mr Hagerman is very popular throughout New Mexico and his selection has met general approval.

It is not easy for a youngster to make good in congress as an autocratic Speaker imposes silence on the newcomer. Hence the sensation made by the recent speeches of F K Landis of Indiana is still greater that if his words of wit and eloquence had come from a veteran.

This young man who in appearance might be mistaken for a page is 33 years old. His brother Charles B Landis has been a representative from the Ninth district for the last eight years. Fred K Landis private secretary to Charles till 1902 decided that he wanted to be a congressman himself. He went home and had himself elected. His first speech though delivered on the somewhat prosy subject of life insurance was so full of pithy epigrammatic remarks that predictions are made that he will take the place of Albert Beveridge as orator.

THE DEADLY CIGARETTE

In the New York Sun [illegible] dies full of [illegible] of [illegible] cigarettes are so [illegible] that we are [illegible] strictly grateful to those who [illegible] time reminded us of the [illegible] our thanks are due at present to a thoughtful and learned writer in Success a Mr [illegible] Mardin who has been at great pains to collect a few particulars. Among other things we learn that:

First—The cigarette blunts the sensibilities and deadens the thinking faculties.

Second—It kills ambition.

Third—It is fatal to all normal functions.

Fourth—It blights and blasts both [illegible] and mentals.

Fifth—It not only ruins the [illegible] but it unbalances the mind.

Sixth—It creates in many an almost irresistable inclination to crime.

These are only a few of the consequences Mr Mardin would doubtless have dealt more at large with the ethical aspect of the matter if that had been his theme. But I leave it to others. He says to discuss the moral side, only adding that the moral depravity which follows the cigarette habit is something frightful and that lying cheating and impurity are its general results.

It is however with the physical consequences that he is chiefly concerned and the facts he produces are surprising. He speaks of the strength of cigarette nicotine poison—note "cigarette"—and of what can be done with it. He tells us that dogs have been killed with a single drop of nicotine. We can tell him of more terrible things. It has been shown that anhydrous hydrocyanic acid is so deadly that if you dip a glass rod into it and then merely touch a cat's nose the cat will drop dead before you have time to withdraw the rod. We mention this fact because we clearly foresee that the lead advocates of cigarettes will come forward with the argument that nicotine has not been found in Turkish tobacco or is, at all events, present in very minute quantities. There is no doubt about the presence of the cyanides, and hydrocyanic acid is far more deadly than nicotine.

However Mr Mardin shows plainly enough how dangerous a cigarette may be by the following experiment:

A chemist not long ago took the tobacco used in an average cigarette and soaked it in several teaspoonfuls of water, and then injected a portion of it under the skin of a cat. The cat almost immediately went into convulsions and died in fifteen minutes.

The moral is that cigarettes should never on any account be taken as an infusion. Nor should they ever be administered hypodermically. They should be smoked.

BUSINESS SHARKS

From the Bench and Bar.

Lawyers everywhere should warn and protect their clients and acquaintances against the depredations of a class of unprincipled promoters and so-called business opportunity financiers who operate somewhat extensively in New York city and less important financial centers. These are they who pretend to possess or be able to control unlimited capital for the establishment or development of sound commercial or industrial enterprises but who in reality subsist on advanced fees and an unsuspected share in the charges of experts accountants auditors and even disreputable members of the bar with whom the business opportunity shark is too often in league. The capital of course is never furnished.

If the concern appears to be easy mark very enthusiastic about the project or betrays the possession of handy bills of lading or bills of lading or advance charges is generally made the bigger to be divided of course when the deal goes through. # THOUSANDS VISIT THE ZOO; ITS SUCCESS IS ASSURED

Did you go out to the Zoo yesterday? If not, you are one of a very small minority, because almost everybody in town attended the opening of Alderman John J. Coughlin's pleasure resort either yesterday afternoon or evening. Several thousand people visited the Zoo during the daylight hours and nearly as many more saw the sights at night.

But the success which attended the opening of the resort can not be estimated alone by numbers. Everybody who went out to the Zoo liked the place, they went seeking pleasure and the found it both in quantity and quality.

One feature of the resort was especially pleasing—the good order which was maintained. No liquor was sold on the grounds, and no boisterousness was allowed. It was a laughing, jolly crowd and it was a well-behaved crowd as well.

To pick out any one feature of the Zoo as the most popular would be expressing a personal preference. The roller coaster was probably the best patronized, but the skating rink, merry-go-round and other amusement devices were liberally patronized all day. The menagerie attracted much attention, and the young people were delighted with rides about the park. The old mill, Noah's ark, the miniature railway and the Zoo band also added greatly to the pleasure-dispensing ability of the Zoo. In short, the Zoo made a "hit" with Colorado Springs folks yesterday, and its success is assured.

It is the intention of Arthur J. Haggenjos, Sol Friedman and T. E. Cullen, who have charge of the Zoo, to add a number of attractions in the near future, among these being a [illegible] and a Valentine [illegible]. Many other attractions will be added to [illegible] making the resort one of the most complete of its kind in the west.

Graves of Civil War Veterans Adorned With Flowers Grand Army Holds Exercises at Evergreen Cemetery---Rev. A. W. Moore Delivers Memorial Address---Parade a Feature of Day.

Thousands of people visited the various cemeteries of this city and vicinity yesterday and strewed decorating the graves of the departed. [illegible] the exercises participated in by the Grand Army of the Republic, by the W. R. C. and by the Sons of Veterans.

The Grand Army contingent first assembled at Pioneer hall after the [illegible] and then marched to the Evergreen cemetery where the Memorial address was delivered by the Rev. A. W. Moore, pastor of the First Congregational church, delivering an address. The Old Soldiers' Home was also visited by the Grand Army and the Sons of Veterans, who placed flowers on the graves of the inmates.

The Rev. Mr. Moore's address was in part as follows:

"[illegible] Civil battle [illegible] soldiers fought with [illegible] and heroism. After the [illegible] the authorities gave to each of the soldiers a medal on which was inscribed the name of the battle and these words: 'I was there.' And this simple inexpensive medal was [illegible] more precious than gifts of silver or gold. [illegible] put the battle.

"I look back over the years to the dark days of the rebellion [illegible] boys, [illegible] hold, when brother [illegible] against brother, and the self-made sacrifice of freedom and peace by the blood of the fathers was [illegible] with the blood of their sons. I look into the faces of men who wear the blue and the badge and count it a high honor to pay them a loving [illegible] Memorial day because they were there. They are defenders of the principles laid down in the preamble of our constitution that 'from the government of the people, for the people, by the people might not fail,' that the strength of the Union might not be turned not any star torn from the blue background of our flag, there to establish the dignity of the power that protects our homes and makes secure in possession of life and liberty and in the pursuit of happiness, prosperity and happiness.

Tears no Sign of Weakness.

"But I cannot speak as I would. My words cannot partake of the fervor and eloquence of a comrade. I did not share with you the sad farewell, the fatigue of the forced march. I have read many an anecdote from the soldier's diary that would bring tears to the eyes of the most thoughtless. You have passed through many an experience in which to regard your tears a sign of weakness were treason against your manhood.

"But while I address you as one whose knowledge of the conflict is only a student's knowledge of history, and while my words must therefore lack the warmth and inspiration of comradship, they shall not fail to say over the graves of the heroic dead and to the heroic living: 'We are grateful for what you have done for the land we love, for your gallant defense of American homes, American principles and American institutions, and as we look with pride upon the unstained banner, we pledge anew our faith in the old flag and our undying devotion to all it stands for.'

"The battles you fought and won have not been won in vain. The price you placed on the stars and stripes has suffered no discount. Fear not for the future of your country, venerable men. The same fire that burned in your breasts when you heard the news of the fall of Sumter, would burst into flames in the breasts of America's youth today, should the news reach them that the flag had suffered insult.

Spirit of Patriotism.

"What we must believe in, and what we must endeavor to make vital and strong, is the spirit of patriotism that lives and breathes unnoticed in the hearts of the common people until the hour of the nation's peril and need. I say I believe this spirit exists today. It is our sacred duty to perpetuate it.

"The truest patriotism springs only from the love of country, and the truest patriot is he who loves his country because he believes in the righteousness of her principles, the wisdom and justice of her laws, the integrity of her motives, the equality and sacredness of her cause. We want men of conscience and backbone who dare to demand, 'Let my country stand for the right and then she may count on me to stand by her.'

"Patriotism is born in the hearts of the rising generation; it is hereditary, but it needs also constant inspiration and cultivation. [illegible] that the faithful observance of the memorial is most essential [illegible] perpetuation of the spirit [illegible] Could the soldier [illegible] ingratitude [illegible] ought to the sight of [illegible] if its dust [illegible] forgotten and neglected [illegible] given up to the [illegible] deeds of Angels [illegible] are soon forgotten [illegible] ful memories of the [illegible] due and if we do [illegible] the rising generation [illegible] not to put them [illegible] to them.

"Woe to America [illegible] she has no soul for [illegible] wreath of pine [illegible] But I rejoice to believe [illegible] never come. From [illegible] from east to west [illegible] and its deeds are [illegible]

A Nation's Sins.

"A nation's sins [illegible] A nation's sin of [illegible] corruption. [illegible] is death. No [illegible] old age. The nation that [illegible] cannot [illegible] any [illegible] to eradicate suicide. We [illegible] our diseases [illegible] cases will extend to [illegible] has been a severe teacher to us. We do well to remember her [illegible] We [illegible] the flames that [illegible] our flag and [illegible] and rights as [illegible] the self-guardians of the old flag [illegible] and the rights [illegible] These will nourish in the hearts of the rising generation a spirit of patriotism worthy of the [illegible]

"Finally, let us [illegible] this day to put away all sectional bitterness. It was reserved for America to exemplify in the person and [illegible] Lincoln [illegible] brotherhood, and to [illegible] by his mouth, 'With charity [illegible] let us strive forward [illegible] for America to demonstrate by the magnanimity of her greatest soldier that it is more blessed to forgive and love again than to harbor and nourish in hearts of hate. [illegible] the noble example of these and others who stood with them in the conflict we have seen the truest wisdom.

"We of the north suffered much for a righteous cause; they of the south suffered more for a cause, the loss of which was their greatest calamity.

What Unity Means.

"We have come to see that the union of states for more than forty thousand [illegible] today than ever before, and the man who is unwilling to bury the sad wrongs of the past [illegible] against [illegible] against west is a traitor to the spirit of the American [illegible] perpetuation of unity and [illegible]

"The American [illegible] which the idea of a [illegible] of states has been worked out as [illegible] to all the world, is the soil in which the great idea of the equality of man is being worked out as among no other people. We have come to see that the highest possible good of each is linked inseparably with the highest possible good of the other, and that the law of self-protection involves the necessity of being our brother's keeper. Slowly but surely we are learning the great truth that none of our difficulties can find their settlement in a law of compromise that treats the interest of one as antagonistic to those of another. We have our labor unions and sections there, we have our trusts and there is doubtless much in their motives to be commended. But the union we really need is the union of capital and labor, based on the recognition of the truth that they are one and inseparable; that united they stand, divided they fall.

"The great questions of war have been settled. We believe that they have been settled right and forever. But the question belonging peculiarly to the time of peace has not been settled. With us today, the time of peace is an anxious trying time. We were never in greater need of patriotism than now. Never in all our history have there been greater opportunities for heroism to distinguish itself than at the present hour. 'Now is the accepted time.' Now is the day of the national salvation. And your individual character and name—your daily life and influences and mine are parts of this salvation.

The Parade.

The parade in the morning was a feature of the day. The lines formed promptly at 9:30 o'clock, at Klowa street and Nevada avenue, with Col. L. C. Dana, marshal of the day, in charge. All along the line of march, the aged veterans, who marched with halting steps, were cheered to the echo. Leading the parade columns were Chief of Police Adams and Captain of Police Hoffman. They were followed by two platoons of patrolmen, in full dress uniforms. Following the chief and his captain were Sergeants Railsback and Armstrong and Patrolmen Swanson, Miller, McIntirf, Shelby, Gavin, O'Neal, Millen, John Patton, Shepherd, Draper, Harper, Springer, Fawcett, McCarthy, Joseph Patton and McReynolds. All wore white gloves and carried batons.

Colonel L. C. Dana, officer in charge, and Colonel Davis, of the Colorado National guard, mounted, followed. Then following in order were the Colorado City band, directed by George Bittrich; Company A and Company B of the High school cadets, under Captains McCoombe and Perry, with Major Fairley commanding; Lieutenant Colonel Phillips, of the First Regiment, Uniformed Rank, Knights of Pythias, attended by Major Carrington, Colonel Bennett, Colonel Masterson, Colonel Smith and Captain Benton; Uniform Rank Company No. 2, K. of P., in command of Captain Reibscheid and Uniform Rank No. 10, K. of P., in command of Captain Grant; Canton Colfax No. 3, P. M., I. O. O. F., in command of Major A. E. Gros, the Junior Order of United American Mechanics in command of Captain A. T. Poley; the mayor and city officials in carriages; Chief Armbruster of the fire department and Assistant Chief Reasoner, a squad of Spanish-American veterans; the Grand Army drum corps of Post No. 22, and members of the post, while Ladies of the G. A. R. and Women's Relief corps brought up the rear riding in carriages.

The parade being ended, the Grand Army members, the auxiliary organizations, accompanied by thousands who desired to do honor to the departed dead among the veterans by the decoration of their graves boarded street cars for the cemetery.

MAY LOSE BATTLESHIP

Experts Believe That the Ship Cannot Be Refloated.

LONDON May 31—It is feared the British navy will lose one of its best vessels, the first-class battleship Montagu, which struck on the rocks at Lundy Island Wednesday and according to the latest reports is not likely to be refloated. Naval experts are of the opinion that to attempt to refloat the Montagu under present conditions will mean her disappearance in thirty fathoms of water as she is fixed precariously on a ledge and is in danger of overturning. If possible an attempt will be made to patch up the vessel before any effort is undertaken to float her off.

The battleship Duncan and the wrecking tug Alligator have arrived here are standing by the Montague to render any assistance.

Little is yet known as to what happened when the vessel struck. All the members of the crew were saved, but several men had limbs broken in the panic that occurred.

TRIBUTES TO NATION'S DEAD

United States has shown that he possesses certain qualities which entitle him in a peculiar degree to the respect of all his fellow citizens with every man who is now in the Service can not but feel himself uplifted by the thought that in any time of future trouble it may be that the honor of the same nation will depend upon his bearing. There rests upon each of you a double distribution of responsibility and there [illegible] the proud privilege of feeling that kind of responsibility we

Plain Everyday Duties.

This audience is composed largely of veterans of the Civil war largely of men who [illegible] are serving in the army [illegible] the United States. The [illegible] not only with the duties of [illegible] the sailor but with the duties of [illegible] with all matters affecting the everyday citizen as [illegible] citizens. I am [illegible] most awake to the fact that in our country our army and navy [illegible] army and navy men [illegible] our forces [illegible] the fellow citizens who [illegible] have taken [illegible] part in [illegible] some one [illegible] citizens [illegible] stood [illegible] [illegible] as a whole [illegible] way in which [illegible] his [illegible] [illegible]

This [illegible] the leader who [illegible] life carries [illegible] burden of responsibility. [illegible] much and [illegible] more [illegible] It is [illegible] man in a high [illegible] may be that of a [illegible] of peace or [illegible] civil officer in time [illegible] marked degree of [illegible] difficult delicate [illegible] and should, on [illegible] an especially [illegible] for any shortcoming [illegible] crisis the man in [illegible] civil life the man in high [illegible] military or naval life can, if he be weak or incompetent paralyze the efforts of a multitude of brave and able men who are under him. On the other hand if he be intellect, and above all, in character he is able to rise level to the need of the moment, he may so combine and direct the actions of the many under him as to make their joint effort irresistible. The first duty of a leader civil or military is to lead and he must lead well. Exactly as the people must demand the highest grade of integrity and efficiency from their leaders in civil affairs, so in military affairs they must insist upon every officer devoting all the best that there is in him to fitting himself for the duties of his profession to caring for and drilling and training those under him so that alike in point of personnel and in point of material the army and navy of the United States may reach as high a point of perfection as is humanly possible. This is the work that only the leaders can do and if they shirk it their shame is unspeakable.

The Man in the Ranks.

Nevertheless it remains true that no leader can accomplish very much unless he has the right kind of men to lead. Unless the enlisted man has the right stuff in him it stands to reason that no officer can get it out of him because it is not there to get out. So in war time if all our leaders were Washington and Lincolns they could nevertheless make no permanent improvement in our citizenship unless the average citizen had in him the capacity for such improvement. In the last analysis it is the man behind the ballot who counts most in civil life just as it is the man behind the gun who counts most in military life.

We [illegible] highly honor the memory of our leaders in the Civil war. [illegible] of Sherman and Johnston of Sedgwick Jackson and Sheridan of Lee and of all the captains who fought under them against him. But after all the man upon whom the chief credit must rest was the from man in the ranks the man in blue or in gray who went in to see the war through and who did see it through. It had the courage to stand with it for hunger the bickering of the skirmishes and the hammering of the great fights. It had the steadfast endurance to bear with uncomplaining resignation the hunger and the heat and the cold the scorching days and the freezing nights the grinding heartbreaking fatigue of the marches the wearisome monotony of the camps and the slow suffering of the field hospitals. So in the army and the navy today in the last analysis we must depend upon having the right stuff in the enlisted man and then upon having that stuff put into proper shape. So again in our republic as a whole it is just as true in peace now as it was forty-five years ago in war that it is the character of the average man that must be the determining factor in achieving national success or going down to national disaster. Leadership is necessary in order that we may get really good results out of a high average of individual character but without the high character in the average individual the leadership by itself can avail but little.

Importance of Character.

Now it is easy to say this in words which shall imply merely flattery of the average voter or of the average enlisted man. I certainly do not intend my words to be so taken. It is a sure sign of weakness in any man if he is always wanting to be flattered and especially if he lets his head be turned by flattery. The average voter needs to learn and to keep steadily in mind the fact that if in the last resort the real power is his so in the last resort the real responsibility is his. He can not cast off on anyone else the responsibility for our governmental shortcomings. Nothing is cheaper than to say that the people are all right but that the politicians are all wrong. As a matter of fact politicians, and therefore politicians, will in the long run represent faithfully either the wisdom or the indifference of the people; and if the people are indifferent the results are just about as bad as if they deliberately choose to go wrong. So it is with the enlisted man. When I call attention to the high place he holds, and must ever hold in the esteem of every sensible man, I do it less with the intention of emphasizing the respect due him by outsiders than with the intention of making him realize the burden of honorable obligation resting upon his shoulders. By unwearied effort he must learn to do his duty whether that duty lies in the cavalry or the infantry in the gun turret or in the engine room. He must be able to handle himself and to handle the formidable and delicate mechanism intrusted to his care in such manner that if ever it becomes his fortune to take part in battle for the flag another page shall be added to the many which go to make up the long honorable roll of American history.

Self Reliant Initiative.

In closing I ask your attention to the fact that our soldiers and sailors are able to do their duty in great emergencies even other than those of war. Recently the most appalling disaster that has ever befallen any city of the same size for a century past, befell the great and beautiful city of San Francisco. In the midst of their horror and pity and sympathy the rest of our people were rendered proud and glad by the courage, the self-reliance, the [illegible] command shown by the men and women of San Francisco themselves under the sudden and awful calamity which had befallen them. We had yet another source of pride in the fact that the first Americans outside the city who were able to extend relief and help were the officers and enlisted men of the garrison and the ships in the immediate neighborhood of San Francisco. The alertness the instant response to the demand upon them the mixture of self reliant initiative with orderly obedience and coherence of action the high personal value and the steady endurance and strength shown by the soldiers and sailors of the regular army and navy in coping with this disaster were as great as it shown in time of battle. Such a record should make every true American proud of the army and the navy and should make every true American resolute to see that through [illegible] authorities at Washington we make such provision by law for the maintenance the support and the training of the army and the navy, that they shall ever stand in the front rank of their respective professions.

"At all times and to all people I am willing to testify to the merits of Cuticura. It saved me from worse than the tortures of hell, about the year 1900, with itching on my scalp and temples, and afterwards it commenced to break out on my hands. Then it broke out on my limbs. I was advised to use salt and water, which I did, to no effect. I then went to a Surgeon, who commenced treating me with a wash of borax. This treatment did me no good, but rather aggravated the skin. I then told him I would go and see a physician in Erie. The reply was that I could go anywhere, but a case of eczema like mine could not be cured; that I was too old (80). I went to an eminent doctor in the city of Erie and treated with him for six months, with like results. I had tried of the Cuticura Remedies often. I was strongly tempted to give them a trial, so I sent for the Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Resolvent and continued taking the Resolvent until I had taken six bottles, stopping it to take the Pills. I am now getting better. I took two baths a day, and at night I let the lather of the Soap dry on. I used the Ointment with great effect after washing in warm water, to stop the itching at once. I am now cured.

"The Cuticura treatment is a blessing and should be used by every one who has itching of the skin. I can't say any more, and thank God that He has given the world such a curative. You can use this letter as you please. A very much befriended [illegible] Wm. H. Gray, 3303 Mt Vernon St., Philadelphia, Pa., August 2 1905."

JACKSONVILLE Ills May 30—Judge Owen P Thompson of the Seventh Illinois circuit in a letter to President Harker of the Illinois Woman's college yesterday resigned as a member of the board of trustees giving as his reason the acceptance of the Carnegie offer of $25,000 conditional on the college raising $75,000 additional. His letter discusses at length the policy of accepting money from tainted sources and takes positive grounds against accepting money from such men as Carnegie and Rockefeller. ## DENVER DEFEATS TERRORS; SIEGEL GETS A HOME RUN

Burkhart Is Stingy With Hits and Locals Have Little Chance---High School Plays Perfect Fielding Game. Ninth Inning Is Fatal Round.

In an almost perfect game from a fielding standpoint, Colorado Springs High school lost to East Denver High school yesterday afternoon on Washburn field. The game was exciting throughout. Denver winning in the ninth inning. A large holiday crowd of enthusiastic fans attended.

Burkhart, who did the slab work for Denver, was there with the goods in eight of the nine innings. His foot slipped in the third inning, and his team nearly fell into the defeat basket as a result. At all other stages of the game he was the "candy," and the local batters don't like candy either.

Seigel, a little boy who was not given a place on the local team until a few days ago, was the only Terror who was not afraid of Burkhart. Siegel is only about three feet tall, but he succeeded in knocking out a homer in the third and also sent a pretty single into the right garden in the ninth. Siegel certainly made good yesterday and will be a "regular" hereafter.

The fielding feature of the game was afforded by Captain Hoak of the Terrors. In the fourth inning Gates swatted a sky ball just inside the left foul line which looked good for "three" bases. Hoak ran after the ball like a race horse and took the leather while he was away up in the atmosphere. The score:

$25,000 BELMONT STAKES WON BY WHITNEY'S BURGOMASTER

NEW YORK, May 30.—Before one of the largest crowds ever seen on an eastern race track, Harry Payne Whitney's Burgomaster, at the prohibitive odds of 2 to 5, easily won the $25,000 Belmont stakes at Belmont park today, defeating John Madden's The Quail by a length and a half, with W. Harry Brown's Accountant third. The mile and three furlongs was run in the fast time of 2:20, and at no stage of the race was the favorite threatened. The day was ideal for racing, and between 45,000 and 50,000 persons were present.

With only a few moments delay at the post, they were sent away to a good start. Accountant was first to show, but Burgomaster soon headed him and as they flashed past the quarter post the favorite was leading by a length, Accountant second and The Quail third. This order was maintained to the stretch, where Accountant ran wide and the Quail, who closed strong, got up in time to get second money.

Good and Plenty, loaded the $5,000 Whitney Memorial steeplechase. Results:

First—Four and one-half furlongs. Monfort won, Handy, second, Greene, third. Time, :58¼.

MRS. JOSEPH JEFFERSON TO GET BULK OF ESTATE.

BOSTON, May 30.—In the supreme court Justice Henry N. Sheldon handed down a decision upon the will of Joseph Jefferson, the actor, in which the disposition of a fund of about $250,000, realized from the sale of his pictures was involved.

Under the decision his widow, Mrs. Sarah A. Jefferson, will receive the bulk of the proceeds. The actor willed to his wife all his paintings, except those executed by him, which were not, or about his estate at Buzzards Bay. Some of the paintings however were loaned out on exhibition, others were away from the estate not the purpose of sale to be returned if not sold. This complication gave rise to a situation that made it necessary for Mr. Jefferson's executors to ask for the interpretation of the will by the court.

However, the terrier recovered from the effects of the poison in time to be entered. Mr. Bartlett received word last night that his dog had won the Terrier clubs cup in addition to taking second honors in the field and open stakes.

Warren Vicar is one of the best known dogs in local dogdom. At the annual show of the Colorado Springs Kennel club at Temple Theater this fall, Warren Vicar took second prizes in the terrier classes, Henry Russell Wray's Sabre Rossitable winning the first ribbon.

They gave a banquet and dance at the Antlers hotel last night and left for Denver early this morning. The Sir Lazare is one of the most popular dancing clubs of Denver, and takes a trip to some state town every Decoration day. A number of local society people attended the club's dance at the Antlers last night.

CRIPPLE CREEK PRISONER IN SPRINGS CITY JAIL.

Elmer Dunn, charged with the murder of Frederick Oneschke, an aged German, at Cripple Creek on the night of March 11, was lodged in the city jail for several hours yesterday. Dunn was arrested at Leadville Tuesday by John Sharpe, chief of police of Cripple Creek, and was brought here yesterday by Sharpe. James Ellison, Dunn's partner, who is also charged with the crime, has been arrested and lodged in the Victor jail. Sharpe and his prisoner left for the gold camp last night on the Midland.

Charles S. Ralisback, sergeant of police, was called to Harrisburg, Mo., yesterday by the death of a sister. Officer C. N. Draper is acting as sergeant during Ralisback's absence.

Umpire Stats Davis was in the San Francisco disaster and instead of boarding the train and coming east as a refugee, which would have cost him nothing, he spent a week trying to get a ticket from President O'Neil!

BURNS THREATENS BIG MINING SUIT

MAKES FORMAL DEMAND TO EXAMINE GOLD DOLLAR PROPERTY IN BEHALF OF ZOE COMPANY.

James F. Burns, as president of the Zoe Gold Mining company, has threatened another big litigation over mining property in the Cripple Creek district. Mr. Burns has served formal demand through the sheriff's office on Frank M. Woods, president of the Gold Dollar Consolidated Mining company, to examine the property of the latter company on Beacon hill, with a view of ascertaining whether or not ore belonging to the Zoe company has been illegally extracted by the Gold Dollar company in the workings of its Mabel M claim. If the demand is not granted, it is understood that Mr. Burns will begin suit against the Gold Dollar company for damages running into the thousands of dollars.

The Gold Dollar company owns a large acreage on Beacon hill, in the middle of which, much cut up, is the Zoe property. The latter comprises less than an acre.

The Zoe company has had a meteoric career on the local mining exchange. The stock which was pooled several years ago upon an agreement to sell out at 30 cents, advanced to 23 3-4 cents, when several heavy holders unloaded on the market, knocking out the bottom. M. Kinney, the largest holder of the stock, was financially ruined by the transaction, and many others lost heavily. The stock is now selling around 1 cent. James F. Burns, the deposed president of the Portland Gold Mining company, afterwards secured control.

STEAMSHIP MOVEMENTS.

NEW YORK, May 30.—Arrived, Carmania from Liverpool.

TRAVELING IS DANGEROUS

Constant motion jars the kidneys which are kept in place in the body by delicate attachments. This is the reason that travelers, trainmen, street car men, teamsters and all who drive very much suffer from kidney disease in some form. Foley's Kidney Cure strengthens the kidneys and cures all forms of kidney and bladder disease. Geo. H. Hutsam, locomotive engineer, Lima, O., writes: "Constant vibration of the engine caused me a great deal of trouble with my kidneys, and I got no relief until I used Foley's Kidney Cure." For sale by the Hefley-Arcularius Drug Co.

ARMOUR FIRE LOSS MAY REACH A MILLION DOLLARS.

CHICAGO, May 30.—Fire early today destroyed Armour & company's elevator "D" standing along a slip extending from the south branch of the river at Fisk street. With the elevator were destroyed one million bushels of wheat, corn and oats. Four men employed in the elevator were hurt, one fatally, soon after the fire started, when a series of explosions, caused by ignition of the dust, spread the flames throughout the building.

The loss was estimated roughly at from $500,000 to more than $1,000,000. In addition, 15 cars filled yesterday with grain, were destroyed.

RAILROADS REFUSE DEMAND OF THE FREIGHT HANDLERS

CHICAGO, May 30.—The railroads have given their first definite answer to the demands of the freight handlers for an increase in wages. It was a flat refusal. While only two of the roads, the Rock Island and the Chicago & Eastern Illinois, disclosed their positions, their action is believed to be indicative of the stand which the others will take.

Committees chosen from employes in the Rock Island freight houses were told the company was willing to renew the wage scales of the last year, but that an increase in pay, in view of the conditions in the railroad business, was out of the question.

The offer promptly was refused by the men.

An attempt was made by the officials of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois railroad to induce the employes to sign individual demands.

ANOTHER PORTION OF MT. VESUVIUS CRATER FALLS.

NAPLES, May 30.—Another portion of the main crater of Mount Vesuvius fell in this morning causing a thick black column of smoke to arise to a height of several hundred feet eclipsing the sun and spreading ashes and cinders over Torre Annunziata and surrounding villages. The incident caused considerable alarm especially because it was accompanied by several loud detonations, and many peasants left their homes. Professor Matteucci, director of the royal observatory, who had returned to his post, ordered the workmen who were clearing the roads to stop operations. The professor telegraphed to Naples that he believes nothing serious will happen, even if the phenomenon should be repeated.

UNITED STATES ARE NOT INVOLVED IN MEAT SCANDAL.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—In all of the storm raised over the alleged practices of some of the packing houses, the officers of the United States army are secure in the knowledge that every precaution has been taken by the commissary department to secure sound meats for them and for every enlisted man. Under the direction of Commissary General Sharpe, the army meat is thoroughly examined at every stage of its preparation, so far, at least, as the canned and dry salt meats are concerned.

BIBLE SOCIETY WILL SEND NEW MAN TO PHILIPPINES.

NEW YORK, May 30.—The American Bible society has appointed Rev. J. L. McLaughlin agent for the Philippines to succeed Rev. Jay C. Goodrich, who resigned after five years' service. Mr. McLaughlin has been a presiding elder in the Philippine mission and editor of the "Philippine Christian Advocate" since its inception. He will sail late in July, visiting the agencies in Japan and China en route.

PROPOSE LIBRARY FOR WORKS ON CHEMISTRY.

NEW YORK, May 30.—The committee formed by the Chemists' club to frame plans to commemorate the semi-centennial anniversary of the discovery by Dr. W. H. Perkins of the chemical uses of coal tar reported in favor of the establishment of a library of works in chemistry, probably to be known as the Perkins library and to cost $50,000, the appropriation of $5,000 for a Perkins medal and a token to Dr. Perkins and a dinner on October 6 at which the distinguished chemist is expected to be present. The plans were adopted.

It was announced that the Chemists' club is to be made a national institution, with non-resident members who will have the use of the books in the library for $5 a year. There are to be two sets of books, one for local reference and the other for circulation throughout the country. Ten thousand dollars already has been promised toward the establishment of this library.

The Perkins medal is to be awarded annually to an American chemist for distinguished work in technical chemistry.

CHIEF ENGINEER STEVENS TALKS OF THE CANAL WORK.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—"Although I have little time to look into political conditions in Panama, I do not think there is danger of any serious revolution on the isthmus of Panama," said Chief Engineer Stevens of the Isthmian Canal commission today.

"The Panama railroad was never affected seriously by revolutions on the isthmus and even if there were to be an insurrection I do not think the canal zone would be involved in the disorder. Any encounters would doubtless be without the zone."

Mr. Stevens since his arrival in Washington has been in conference with the members of the commission and appeared before the house committee on appropriations.

In speaking of the future of the canal work, Mr. Stevens said:

"We have come to the parting of the ways and must know what sort of canal we are to build. Just before I left the isthmus the first of the new locomotives and large cars arrived and within three months we shall have the necessary equipment to make the dirt fly. Now that the plant for handling the dirt is almost ready, a halt must soon be called if it is not known whether the canal is to be of the lock or sea-level type."

AMERICAN ENVOY RECEIVED BY THE KING YESTERDAY.

MADRID, May 30.—King Alfonso received Mr. Whiteridge, the American envoy, at the palace this morning. Mr. Whiteridge presented a letter from President Roosevelt felicitating his majesty on his marriage.

The king thanked the envoy in behalf of the Spanish nation.

Married Women

Every woman covets a shapely, pretty figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish forms after marriage. The bearing of children is often destructive to the mother's shapeliness. All of this can be avoided, however, by the use of Mother's Friend before baby comes, as this great liniment always prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of her form. Mother's Friend overcomes all the danger of child-birth, and carries the expectant mother safely through this critical period without pain. It is woman's greatest blessing. Thousands gratefully tell of the benefit and relief derived from the use of this wonderful remedy. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Our little book telling all about Mother's Friend, will be sent free.

WASHINGTON NO PLACE TO DIE.

While in Washington on her last visit Sarah Bernhardt commented upon the tendency to run the nation's capital in the puritan blue law fashion that has gone out of style nearly everywhere else. She said that in many respects Washington is more beautiful than Paris. "But," said Sarah, "why do you make of your beautiful capital a country village? You have no amusements here, no gardens, no places where the workingmen can go on Sunday or in the evenings. At midnight everything is closed. Then Paris wakes. I would rather not die in Washington. It is for a place for even so hilarious an event."

White Shirt Waists 33⅓ Per Cent Off

CHARMING CREATIONS THAT WILL ASTONISH THE MOST CRITICAL

Just so long as we can buy advantageously and turn the saving over to you, we are bound to do so. The hearty response to our past sales, especially the embroidery event demonstrated to us that you appreciate these truly exceptional values. This time it's white shirt waists. A prominent manufacturer's entire sample line that was contracted for at the beginning of the shirt waist season, and because they were to be samples, extra care was taken in the making, and the finest materials were used which makes them of unusual merit.

As we have said, they were made exclusively for samples. The season among the makers has closed; these waists have served their purpose, and the manufacturer, of course, was willing to dispose of them for twothirds their value.

Last year we were fortunate in securing one of these sample lines, and because of the unprecedented success of the sale, our patrons becoming so enthused with such values, we made plans to repeat the sale with a determination that this year's offering shall eclipse the event of a year ago. While the reduction is the same, the waists are far more beautiful.

There are over three hundred and fifty different patterns among these dainty conceptions. Every waist has been cleverly designed and shows the results of intelligent and skillful work performed by the best waist makers of the world.

In this magnificent showing you will see the most beautiful ideas with exquisite hand embroidered designs, finest of laces and best of fabrics. While there is a wide range of pretty, inexpensive styles, there is also a fine collection of truly elegant and perfectly charming ideas.

Try and be on hand tomorrow when the sale begins. We want you to be here if nothing more than to see these pretty things.
